

BOMBAY BUSTLE

||||| 29 MDX 01 |||||

MAYFAIR, LONDON

Background

Bombay Bustle in Mayfair captures the essence of Mumbai, their love of home comforts alongside their rapid pace of life, both existing side by side. The restaurant is a place just as well suited to a leisurely dinner with friends as a quick lunch for one, always inspired by city's diverse flavours, and home style cooking. Designed by Fabled Studio, the space reflects the Art Deco buildings juxtaposed with the organised chaos of modern Mumbai and pays homage to the culture and people, whose expanse of origins from across India have influenced its culinary history.

The Bar

The pewter bar is complemented with green woven jacquard fabric and leather bar stools, creating the perfect place to perch for a pre-dinner cocktail such as a 'Palace on Wheels' with Bombay Sapphire, Strega Liqueur and Cardamom Pods, or a 'Pearl of Bombay' with Vodka, Passion Chutney, Passion Fruit Juice, and Fresh Lemon Juice.

The Carriage

The Carriage, which houses the pewter bar, features a distinctive terrazzo and Marmoleum floor with a palette of soft green custom designed Formica, offset with mahogany and aluminum strap work details, complemented with pale green leathers chairs. Small booths around the carriage are perfect for groups of four, while a larger sharing table down the center seats parties of up to twelve.

Dining Room

The Dining Room, nestled at the end of the Carriage, reflects the Art Deco presence in Mumbai with vibrant pink clay plaster walls and contrasting bottle green leather and candy pink upholstery, all offset with a distressed oiled timber floor. The room is filled with bespoke furniture and tables, and can accommodate up to thirty-six guests.

Retiring Room

The Retiring room, located on the subterranean floor, is the perfect space for guests to retire post-dinner. Enveloped with pale pink plaster walls, brilliant-cut glass screens, deep burgundy leather upholstery and a timber panelled ceiling, the lower ground features deep booths for larger groups and a seated dessert bar encouraging conviviality amongst diners.
